

PSB AND BOISJOLI SABBAG MERGE

PSB and Boisjoli Sabbag, two independent accounting firms in Montreal, have announced a merger creating PSB Boisjoli, which will become one of the largest accounting firms in Quebec. The merger will take effect on January 1, 2008.

PSB (www.psb.ca) is one of the largest independent accounting firms in Quebec. This well-known firm has been established in Montreal for over 40 years, building an enviable reputation in the business sector. The Boisjoli Sabbag accounting firm (www.boisjoli.com) has been serving Montreal since 1920, where it built itself a solid reputation in the business community.

The newly merged firm, PSB Boisjoli, will feature some 120 staff members, making it one of the largest accounting firms in Quebec. With some fifteen different professional designations and advanced university degrees, PSB Boisjoli will offer a full range of professional services to assist businesses in their development, in addition to regular accounting and assurance services. In particular, PSB Boisjoli will offer taxation, financial and business advisory services, research and development tax credits (SR & ED), risk management, and other services. PSB Boisjoli will be affiliated with IGAF worldwide, one of the largest networks of independent accounting firms in the world. H.H. Davis & Assos. Inc. (www.hhdavis.ca), specializing in financial reorganization and insolvency, and Solertia Consulting Group Inc. (www.solertia.ca), specializing in human resources, both affiliated with PSB, will remain affiliated with PSB Boisjoli after the merger.
